Qianlong Garden SC115

QIANLONG Garden is our interpretation of an East India Company wallpaper painted circa 1800. Although we did not have the original at our disposal as with our «Archive» wallpapers, we did have the perfect tracing of it, as the dealers had sold it to Pierre Bergé after having traced it perfectly. Based on the tracing and good photos, the decor was re-painted in our studio and is as close as possible to the original. It is a very dense Tree of Life model populated by Chinese homunculi which gives it a very special character.
